A SENIOR'S RECOLLECTIONS

(Concluded in this issue — Chapter IV)

SYNOPSISChapter I — Bewildered Freshmen

In 1948 the class journeyed from Junior High to Rooms B2 and 203 in the Senior High. Our first job as proud freshmen was to elect class officers. We wisely chose as our leaders Hank Cusick as president. Jack Breen as vice president. Helen Ann Murphy as secretary. and Eddie Stewart as treasurer. Making their debut as future gridiron stars were Hank Cusick, Tom Snow, and Mecca Cole. Many freshmen also participated in other sports.

Chapter II — Experienced Sophomores

September, 1949, brought 206 and 203 a group of sophomores well prepared for their higher duties. To carry out these responsibilities the following held offices: Hank Cusick, president; Jack Breen, vice president; Barbara Prouty, secretary; and Ann Dacey, treasurer. Tom Snow and Buch brought fame to our class by being selected as members of the South Shore All-Star team. Rosemary Manning, Helen Ann Murphy, Joan Perry, and Priscilla Merritt played first team hockey; Eddie Stewart made varsity basketball. Nine boys of our class were admitted to the Key Club. Also we were ably represented in the All-School Play. Held successfully was the Freshman-Sophomore Dance.

Chapter III — Junior Saga

At long last were were upperclassmen. Again we commenced the year with Hank Cusick as president, Peter Nord as vice president, Barbara Prouty as secretary, and Ann Dacey as treasurer. Bringing football glory to our class were John Jacobucci, Hank Cusick, Jack Breen. Tom Snow and Eddie Stewart. Rosemary Manning. Joan Perry, Marilyn Dyer, Shirley Pettersen. Helen Ann Murphy, Joyce Bamber, Carol Walsh and Barbara Hunter represented us in girls' sports. To climax this wonderful year was the Junior Prom, financially and socially successful.

CHAPTER IVTHE END OF THE JOURNEY

To lead us through the Senior year we re-elected our former officers — Hank Cusick, president; Peter Nord, vice president; Barbara Prouty, secretary; and Ann Dacey, treasurer. New members of the class were George Baker, Joel Bumpus, Gene McAfee and John Staffeld.

Senior football stars who brought us the 1951 championship were Hank Cusick (captain), Jack Breen, Eddie Stewart, David LaVange, John (Buch) Jacobucci, Jack Kettell, David Stone, Paul Ford, Donnie Shea, Peter Nord and David Evans. Mike Corrigan was the manager. The All-South Shore Team were Pete, Buch, Hank, Donnie, and Eddie, the first captain from Scituate on this "Dream Team." No one will forget the day when Cohasset bowed to a 38-6 defeat on Thanksgiving Day.

Senior members of the eminent basketball team of '52 who led Scituate to its first league championship for several years and into the finals of the Tech Tourney were Eddie Stewart, Paul Green, Croupie Cole (captain), Jack Kettell, George Baker and Paul Ford. In the mind of every Scituate rooter will long remain the superb playing of our team in Boston Gardens, while they made school history.

Many senior girls contributed to the success of our championship field hockey team, namely Rosemary Manning, Helen Ann Murphy, Barbara Prouty, Priscilla Merritt, Shirley Pettersen and Joan Perry (co-captains) with Ann Dacey as manager.

Able helping our girls' basketball team were Joan Perry, Shirley Pettersen, Marilyn Dyer, Faith Simpson, Theresa Dowd, Jebby Burnham, and Rosemary Manning and Helen Ann Murphy (co-captains). Ann Dacey, Priscilla Merritt and Dale Richards were the senior managers.

Senior cheerleaders, spurring the teams on to championships were Barbara Hunter and Joyce Bamber.

Spring sports, tennis, baseball and softball, were also outstandingly participated in by the seniors.

The Senior Christmas Ball was one of our many undertakings. A not-too-successful night financially, it did provide fun for those who attended.

Senior representatives to the Student Council were Eddie Stewart, president; Barbara Prouty, secretary; Peter Nord, Jack Kettell, Richard Clapp, Priscilla Merritt, and Sally Lee. Several conventions were attended by these members.

Seventeen of our class were in the Pro Merito Society this year. We held two induction services and attended two conventions.

We are proud of the members of our class who have been selected for various awards. The D. A. R. Good Citizen Award went to Barbara Prouty. Richard Clapp received the Bausch-Lomb Science Award. During Blue and White Week an award for good sportsmanship was presented to Judith Bernard by the Key Club. Jack Kettell represented our school in the State House on Good Government Day, March 14.

The All-School Play, "Up on Old Smoky," proved a tremendous success with several seniors participating. Leading roles were held by the following seniors: Janet Sternfelt, Faith Simpson, Roxanna Turner, and Bobby Snow. Those appearing in feature acts were Evelyn Jenney and Gene McAfee.

Speaking of plays brings to mind the headline players of the Senior Class Play, "Seventeenth Summer." The leads were played by Barbara Prouty and Peter Nord. They were ably assisted by a cast consisting of Janet Sternfelt, Carol Litchfield, Judy Bernard, Sally Lee, Marilyn Dyer, Barbara Hunter, Robert Mitchell, Michael Corrigan, David LaVange, Gene McAfee, and Robert Snow. Prompters were Priscilla Merritt, Dale Richards and Roxie Turner. Much credit must be given to the other class members who helped make the play a success.

Our four years of high school end the week of June 2 with graduation. We are looking forward to the future years and what they hold for us, but we shall always recall with gladness our wonderful times at S. H. S.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

Ann McAuliffe, '53

When the Junior Class entered Scituate High School in the fall of 1952, we were an experienced group of upperclassmen, eager to participate in sports, band, orchestra, and other school activities. We welcomed three new members to our group: Beth Bigelow from Hingham, David Staffeld from Framingham, and Maureen Glavin from Archbishop Cushing High School in Boston. We were sorry to lose Louise Castles and Phyllis O'Keefe, who are attending Holy Cross Academy, and Bertie Jean Walker, who has moved to Fall River.

Early in the year we chose William Vines as our president; John Nitzsche as vice president; Lois Newcomb, secretary; and Marcus Flaherty, treasurer. As our class advisers we chose Miss Vinal and Mr. Wilcox. We were well represented in the Student Council this year by William Vines, Neil Towle, Lois Newcomb, Aram Brazilian, and Elizabeth Grassie.

During the year our class was well represented in all sports, the All-School production, the Spring Concert, the band, and other school activities. Elizabeth Grassie, Sue Taggart, Maureen Glavin, Isabel Gleason, and Ann Breen, the peppy cheerleaders from our class, were always at the games cheering the teams. Carolyn Macy was the snappy-looking leader of the drum majorettes. Judy Taylor and Frances Sweeney also gave a fine performance in the band, twirling their batons. Robert Dwyer, of our class, was given one of the Good Sports Awards presented by the Key Club this year. Judith Lawson gave an excellent speech in the American Legion Oratorical Contest against strong competition.

The Junior Prom and the Senior Reception, our most important social event, went over very well and was well attended.

We are all looking forward to our senior year with great anticipation, and hope it will be as much fun and as successful as our Junior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS NEWS

Thomas Whittaker, '54

At the first class meeting of the 1951-52 year, Sophomore officers were elected as follows: Russell Prouty, president; Richard Carlson, vice president; Nancy Taggart, treasurer; Mary Marsh, secretary. Our advisers are Miss Hawkes and Mr. Johnson.

The members of our class have been active in school activities this year. Many candidates turned out for the football team and gave faithful service during the season. This year the Sophomore Class had two members on the champion basketball team. These two members were Donald Roy and Charles Goddard. Each contributed largely to the success of the team in the league and in the Tech Tournament. Many girls were active in field hockey, basketball, and other sports.

A large number of the class were in the All-School Production and the Spring Concert. Also several members of the class were in the band.

Our representatives to the Student Council are Gladys Clapp, Phyllis Cahoon, and Clemens Fortman.

In our next two years we hope to become good leaders of Scituate High School.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Carol Merritt, '55

In September, 1951, the Freshman Class embarked on their first year of high school, hoping to become a worthy class and an asset to Scituate High School. Elizabeth Glavin, Ellen Quinn, Margery Staffeld, and Arthur Jackman were welcomed as new members of the class.

The first class meeting was held in December for the purpose of electing officers and advisers. Peter Stewart was chosen president; William Colton, vice president; Carol Merritt, secretary; and Roger Howard, treasurer. Miss Gile and Mr. Atkinson were elected as advisers.

Many members of the class participated in athletics, and a few were fortunate enough to make the teams. Many members of the cast for the All-School production were freshmen.

The Freshman Class look forward to their future years at S.H.S. with much enthusiasm and high hopes of becoming a success.

JUNIOR HIGH

Eighth Grade Notes

Roberta Palmer

When school began, on September 7, 1951, the very experienced students of the present eighth grade appeared. During the year we worked hard, and enjoyed it. The musically-inclined eighth grade students contributed much to the band and orchestra. During the magazine drive, our salesmen worked hard, and earned money for the school assemblies. Our class basketball teams, both boys and girls, won some hard-earned victories. We lost some, too, but in a sporting way.

Our classes entered enthusiastically in the Blue and White Week contests, and as a reward, two members of the 8B class won prizes. In English we made several seasonal booklets, containing pictures, poems and interesting stories. Many of them showed much artistic talent.

In civics we made slogan posters, representing all of the chapters of our text that we had studied. When combined, these posters made a picture booklet.

Transportation booklets, and essays on labor unions for history, kept the 8th grades busy throughout the year.

In our two years of Junior High, we have tried to do our best, in work and play. Our first wish is to set a good example for the Junior High classes that will follow us.

LOYALTY TO THE FRONT

Joan Turner, 8-B

If we look in a dictionary, we can plainly see School Spirit and Loyalty have meanings for you and for me.

It's participating in music even if we don't like the song.

And smiling regardless — when the bell starts to ding-dong.

It's not only cheering in sports when our team's the best.

But it's helping each other and getting along with the rest.

There's always room for improvement so let's try our best;

It's really worthwhile; let's put ourselves to the test.

Let's support our school so 'twill rank high in fame.

'Cause boosting Scituate High will honor its name.

This week is really special, but this reminder's to say,

Let's be loyal not just this week — but everyday!

Seventh Grade Notes

Penny Richards

On September 8, 1951, 109 new students stepped into Scituate High School. Since then about 10 newer students have enrolled. This year seemed very strange to all of us. We had not one new teacher but seven. In the Elementary School we did not change rooms or teachers, and the subjects were not limited. It is much more exciting in high school, though.

For Miss Cunneen's English this year, we made Poetry booklets, Christmas booklets, Mail booklets, and now we are working on Spring notebooks.

For Mrs. Williams, in history, we made a booklet covering the chapters we have read from our history book, entitled "The Building of our Nation."

For Miss Anderson, in hygiene, we have made a Safety booklet, covering all the chapters on safety.

This February, Mr. Driscoll's 7B, put on a Washington and Lincoln assembly.

Next year we'll be able to tease the seventh grade as the eighth grade teases us now.

THE BLUE AND WHITE PARADE

Charles Rodgers, 8-B

The cause of school loyalty has been championed by many writers. Like our school, built brick by brick by skilled workmen, so is the reputation of our school built up, step by step by its students.

What is school spirit? Well, it's defined as enthusiasm, but actually it is something that needs to be felt and experienced before you can know what it is. School spirit is not just going to the game and cheering. That may be enthusiasm, but it is just a fraction of what loyalty really is. If you can't play on the team, you can help your school in many other ways. Even little things like picking up a stray bit of paper show school spirit. Working on an unimportant committee is just as important as winning the game for your school. School spirit is often shown best by the simple, common courtesies and other things that aren't worldshaking but which still are necessary.

So let's go all out for school loyalty. Even if you can't be a star, you can know that you have helped your team and school on to victory by holding fast to the Blue and White and all that it stands for.

YESTERDAY COUNTS, TOO

Priscilla Merritt, '52

All over this vast country of ours, senior classes are leaving high schools. How many of them will take a moment on that all important Graduation Night to look back on their yesterday? As we step out into this modern world, our first thought is of the future and what it will hold. This thought should be followed by another — that of the past. When stepping into a strange, new world, there should be a feeling of confidence. To attain this feeling, we each must cast a backward glance to see if the road behind us was clear.

When we first entered high school, we were awed by the newness of things. The feeling of at last belonging to a class which was part of the senior high school thrilled us and made us feel older and more serious-minded. The day we first elected class officers, we all felt quite proud. As the year progressed, we found we could master the fundamentals of algebra, languages, and a different type of science. Some of our classmates made the athletic teams and proved to everyone that we were good sports on the field and courts. We began to take an active interest in the organizations of our school. Many of us joined the various school clubs. These may seem to be little things to the outside world, but to us, at the time, they were the most important things in our lives. Looking back on these earlier days helps us to realize how important it is to step out on the right foot.

Now as we face the future, we can reassure ourselves with thoughts of successful high school days behind us. With these memories of yesterday, we are able to step forward with confidence into tomorrow.

OUR SCHOOL YEAR

Judith Lawson, '53

Here it is, the end of another school year! As one looks back over the year, he finds many pleasant memories of good times he has had, of good friends he has made, and of things he has accomplished.

First, let us look back at the good times. There were many opportunities to have fun this year. Beginning way back in the fall, there were the football and hockey games, the all-school play, the dances. This winter, basketball held the spotlight. How happy and proud Scituate was of its team in the Tech Tournament. This spring, there were the baseball, softball, and tennis games, the senior play, the spring concert, and, again, the dances. Yes, there were these and many more good times at Scituate High School this year.

Of course, we have had many opportunities to meet new people, to make new friends. Several students from other towns and cities have come to Scituate. These new faces have brightened our corridors and made school life all the more interesting.

But the most important memory of this year is of the work that has been accomplished. Here is a short quiz to see just what has been accomplished. First, have you done a good job this year? Have you worked to the best of your ability? Have you entered into school activities? Have you cooperated toward making S.H.S. a good school? Are you proud of your record and your rating? If you can answer "yes" to all of these questions, congratulations. You may well be proud of yourself. If not all your answers were "yes," try to improve yourself. Work harder to be a creditable part of Scituate High School.

So we have reviewed our school year. It has been a happy one. To the seniors we wish all the luck possible. To the other classes we say, "Do your best always to make Scituate High School proud of you."

LOYALTY YIELDS GREAT REWARDS

Richard Clapp, '52

The loyalty which a student has for his school is manifested in many ways. It is a definite essential in any good school. Without loyalty, a school does not function long before the knowledge that something is wrong becomes evident to the public.

A good indicator of school spirit is the enthusiasm and attendance shown at athletic and other school-sponsored events. Any loyal student supports the school's activities and knows what is going on.

A loyal student does not run down or ridicule his school. In part he makes the school what it is. He must realize that the school is set up to help him, and that he should make the most of his opportunities of free education.

Obedying the regulations of the school is one of the prime manifestations of loyalty. The regulations are set up to make it easier for both student and teacher to get the most out of the school day.

A truly loyal student feels a pride in his school and does his best to better the school in any possible way. He will do more than is required of him for the benefit of the school, others, and, in the end, himself.

The rewards of such faithfulness are far reaching and plentiful. One of the chief rewards of school loyalty is felt by the student himself. If the student has been loyal, he tends to have a better balanced outlook on life in general. He derives a satisfaction from his loyalty which makes his work easier and keeps him headed in the right direction. A loyal student is generally a student of good character.

Another reward is the recognition and approval of a student's loyalty by the town. This approval is felt even after the student has graduated. Whenever a person hears the name of a former student, one of the first things he thinks of is the student's character. One's school record can prove a valuable asset in obtaining a position.

Loyalty to school aids the student in forming greater loyalties, such as loyalty to country and to the laws of the country. If everyone developed this loyalty in school, there would be less crime and agitation in the country. Loyalty is essential to a leader in any field. A disloyal leader is far worse than no leader at all.

This quality of loyalty is essential in American life and is best acquired during high school years. Since the United States is made up of so many different races and creeds common loyalties help tie them together. School loyalty can be likened to an ingredient in the growth of a plant. It is vital to the growth of a strong individual.

WHAT ARE THE CIVIC DUTIES OF TEEN-AGERS TODAY?

Sue Taggart, '53

The civic duties of teen-agers today include many and various activities. Boys and girls should and do take part in making and building a more pleasant and healthy community. These activities range from helping at home to actual work or participation in community affairs.

The first duty and privilege of a teen-ager is taking part in church affairs and events. Religion is one of the main factors in building a strong character.

We have read about groups of teen-agers in some places who were dissatisfied with the limited activities of their town and, themselves, built a Youth Center for all to enjoy. This showed great civic responsibility on the part of the youths of the town.

Organizations and clubs such as the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and the Boys' Club exist for the purpose of building and molding the good citizen of tomorrow. It is a civic duty to support these organizations and clubs by belonging and taking an active part in them.

In some towns and cities one day a year is set aside for the teen-agers to take over government offices. This gives some boys and girls an idea of the problems and affairs that exist continually in the government.

These and various other activities are important ways in which teen-agers can help build a better community.

VOTING AT EIGHTEEN

Judith Bernard, '52

Recently, a new bill was introduced into Congress which would lower the voting age to eighteen. Many statesmen rejected it because they believe teen-agers aren't mature enough to vote.

No other group of teen-agers has ever lived in such a complicated world. For many of us, the bombing of Pearl Harbor is one of our first childhood memories. Along with this we can recall air raids and rationing. Now we are living in a world which is being constantly threatened by atomic bombs and Communism. No person brought up in a world in this condition can be irresponsible and immature.

Many high school students know as much, or more, about politics than the average voter. In history classes we study the history of our government, the framework of our Constitution, and the backgrounds of political candidates.

Let's put our good judgment and our background in history and government to use. Let's show our elders that we are capable of being responsible and mature voters.

LET'S ALL GET TOGETHER

Peter Anderson, '54

No one needs to be reminded that the S.H.S. basketball team was invited to compete in the Tech Tourney held at the Boston Gardens, and that they made the finals. All three games were well attended by students, faculty members, and residents alike.

There was one flaw in the support, however; that was the way in which the boosters were spread out. The finals was the only time an attempt was made to have a section for Scituate, and that was not too successful. In the first two games the only ones who sat together were friends. This took credit away from the good attendance, because for one thing, everyone was so separated cheers couldn't be heard. The other schools sat together; therefore they looked like more, and sounded louder than we did.

To an outsider it would seem that they had more spirit. We know this is not so. Let's prove it. The next chance we get, let's all get together and show them we have as much spirit as any other team.

LOYALTY

Maureen Stark, '54

What makes a school a good one? What makes a student proud?

What makes a team successful? What makes him yell so loud?

It's not a very big word with lots of royalty.

It's just an ordinary one, a word called loyalty.

The classes and the homework, the games that must be won,

The dances, clubs, and parties, the classmates and the fun,—

If interest would be taken in all these things,

The promotion of school spirit would make us feel like kings.

Sportsmanship, citizenship, respect for others, too,

Are items of necessity to you and you and you. So be a credit to your school, give all that you possess

And make this Blue and White Week a very big success!

SCHOOL NEWS

Barbara Prouty, '52

New Faculty Members

There are three new teachers at Scituate High School this year. Mr. Robert D. Burgess was elected to fill Mr. Kreimer's position as teacher of Manual Arts. Mr. Burgess has had many years' experience as a cabinet maker and has taken courses at Fitchburg Teachers' College and Boston University. He has a vocational teachers' certificate from the Massachusetts State Department of Education. Before coming to Scituate, Mr. Burgess taught eight years at Ipswich.

Miss Shirley Bedell from Marshfield High replaced Miss Kingsbury as the Household Arts teacher. Miss Bedell was graduated from Framingham State Teachers' College.

Due to the increased enrollment of the Junior High, a new teacher was added for the seventh grade. Miss Dorothy Anderson, who graduated from Wheaton College, Illinois, came to us after teaching two years in Huntington High School.

Judith Taylor, '53

Blue and White Week

The Student Council sponsored the third annual Blue and White Week, March 3-7. During the week school loyalty and school spirit were particularly stressed. "Loyalty Yields Great Rewards" was our motto for this year.

On Monday morning a short assembly was held to launch the week. The speakers explained the meaning and importance of the activities which had been planned. The photography contest, essay and poem contest, and poster contest were announced, and students were urged to participate. Blue ribbon insignia were given out to each student and teacher.

Bad weather cancelled the boys' intra-mural basketball games. However, the Senior girls did play off the Juniors, losing to them.

A closing assembly was held on Friday, at which the winners of the contests were announced. In the Senior High essay and poem contest, Richard Clapp won first prize for the best essay and Maureen Stark for the best poem. In the Junior High, Joan Turner wrote the best poem and Charles Rodgers the best essay. Gail Purslow and Jackie White won first and second prizes respectively in the poster contest. In the Junior High, Addison Pratt and Anne Willard received first and second prizes. In the photography contest, sponsored by the Key Club, Priscilla Merritt was awarded first prize; Daniel Packard, second prize; and Charles Valine, third prize.

The S. A. Dance brought the week to a close. Jack Kettell acted as master of ceremonies, and there was entertainment and plenty of dancing.

Assemblies — 1951 - 1952

This year Scituate High School has had many fine assemblies. Some of these were planned by the Assembly Committee. Others were put on by classes or by the School Assembly Service.

In September, The Student Association conducted the first assembly of the year. Mr. Froberger announced the speakers, who told us of the purposes of the Association and why we should all become members.

During the same month an assembly of "Vacation Experiences" was given. The speakers were Janet Sternfelt, who told us of her trip to Panama; Judith Bernard and Beryl Sylvester, who described parts of Canada they had visited; William Colton, who talked about his trip with the Boy Scouts to Mexico; Barbara Prouty and Jack Kettell, who described their experiences at Girls' State and Boys' State; and Peter Nord, who told us about his trip to Florida as our representative from the Key Club.

In another student participation assembly in October, some of the Sophomores described their hobbies and experiences. James Denker described and exhibited his prize-winning airplane model; Bonney Austin and Dianne Sherman described their hobbies of tropical fish and Indian relics; Robert Loring told about his trip to Ireland; Clemens Fortman sang two selections, and Gene McAfee, as guest from the Senior Class, played his Hawaiian guitar. Thomas Whittaker read a proclamation of the Governor.

A Junior High Assembly was given on Columbus Day. Opening exercises were conducted by Kevin Colc and Connie Bailey. Recitations were given by Sandra Adler, Richard Basler, and Rachael Barr. A clarinet quartet consisting of Patsy Boyle, David Donoghue, Beverly Burt, and David Dwyer played some selections. A play was put on by Lee Bongarzone, Patsy Barndollar, Paul Brigham, Chris Curran, David Alger, David Berkley, Eddie Dunham, Bobby Clark, Tony Alves, Brian Dwyer, Ricky Cahoon, and Chris Bowker.

In December a film was shown, through the courtesy of the Assembly Committee, on "Bridge to the Future." This film was shown especially for the seniors, but everybody else was interested.

Also in December a Christmas Assembly was put on by the Music Departments under the direction of Miss Reynolds and Mr. Dickinson. "The Christmas Story" was read by Peter Nord, with accompanying selections by the band. Following that a group of senior girls joined the band, singing Christmas carols. During the assembly Marilyn Dyer, as Mary, Henry Cusick, as Joseph, and Edward Stewart, George Baker, and Michael Corrigan as the Three Wise Men, portrayed the characters of the Nativity Scene.

In January we had the Student Government Day Assembly. Mr. Nathaniel Tilden spoke to us about Student Government Day as observed all over the United States.

This year we were very fortunate in having some assemblies put on by the School Assembly Service. One of these was "Marlo and Adrian," an acrobatic team who demonstrated the main steps of acrobatics.

In February we had another assembly put on by the Assembly Service, the "Marimho Duo."

Also in February, Room 102 of the Junior High put on a Lincoln-Washington Assembly. The opening exercises were led by James Prouty. A play, "Years in the Life of Lincoln," was put on by Connie Nitzsche, Adin Pratt, Ted Warshaw, Martha Robbins, Joyce Perry, Carol Stone, Charles Short, Sandy O'Neil, Ann Willard, Bruce Sloat, Donald Young, Billy Smith, Stephen Young, and Harold Wescott, reader. A panel discussion was given by Carolyn Tilden, Patricia Quirk, Danny Packard, David Paradis, and Penny Richards.

In April, 8A gave a variety program with Winnie Dennis as mistress of ceremonies. Margo Clafflin conducted opening exercises. Readings were given by Eddie Wilder, Edward Bowen, and Anne Gardner. A humorous skit, "Mabel Takes up History," was presented by Connie Bowker, Phyllis Gleason, and Mike Coyne. Pat Green and Debbie Brigham gave a skit explaining the proper use of the telephone. A sports skit, "Victory for Our Team," was presented by James Breen, John Barnett, Arthur Henry, Eva Gallup, Nancy DeMello, Rosalie Alves, Mary Blanchard, Lola Essery, Marcia Grip, Marianne Fettig, Mary Sue Curran, and Sylvia Dauphiner. Nancy Bowser, Joan Barry, Cary Grassie, and Susan Cole appeared in a playlet, "Cookie Bakes a Cake."

ALL-SCHOOL PRODUCTION

Dale Richards, '52

THIS year, as in other years, the All-School Play was a huge success. The production, "Up On Old Smoky," was a mountain operetta. It was directed by Miss Eleanor Gile and Miss Gertrude Reynolds.

The leading lady was Faith Simpson, who played Cindy, the mountain choir director. Bob Snow, as Grandpap, was the comedian of the play. Ricky Cahoon was Grandpap's dog. Don Jenny played the part of Sam, the boy Cindy eventually fell in love with. William, played by Peter Sharpe, was a mountain boy that went to the city and became a success. Janet Sternfelt, as Sue Ellen, was a barefoot mountain girl in love with Frankie, who was played by Dave Staffeld. Other members of the cast were Richard Mitchell as Clem; Kenneth Roberts as the preacher; and Roxy Turner as grandma.

The entertainers from the city were Carol Merritt, Carolyn Locklin, and Bonnie Austin. Phyllis Cahoon, Evelyn Jenney, and Gene McAfee participated in a talent show. The singing of the chorus was enjoyed throughout the entire production.

The scenery was designed and constructed by Miss Shmauk and Mr. Burgess. Mr. Wilcox, with Dale Richards as senior chairman, was in charge of tickets; Miss Bedell, of costumes; Miss Hawkes, assisted by Ann Dacey and Rosemary Manning, of programs; Miss Vinal, of candy sales; Miss Harrington, of ushers; and Charles Valine, of lights. The prompters were Dale Richards and Priscilla Merritt. Music was provided by the school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Dickinson.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Dale Richards, '52

ON APRIL 25, the annual Senior Play was presented. This year's production was "Seventeenth Summer." It was directed by Miss Eleanor Gile and Mrs. Frances Cole.

The leading part of Angie was played by Barbara Prouty; Jack, her boy-friend was Peter Nord. Angie's sisters were Margaret, Carol Litchfield; Lorraine, Janet Sternfelt; and Kitty, Sally Lee. Her parents were Robert Mitchell and Judith Bernard as Mr. and Mrs. Morrow. Art, played by David LaVange, and Martin, played by Michael Corrigan, were the boy friends of Margaret and Lorraine. Other members of the cast included Gene McAfee as Tony, Robert Snow as Fitz, Barbara Hunter as Jane, and Marilyn Dyer as Margie.

The stage manager was Thomas Snow. Properties chairman, Jack Breen, was assisted by Evelyn Jenney, Joan Perry, Shirley Pettersen, and Faith Simpson. Costumes were by Miss Shirley Bedell, assisted by Jane Burnham and Joyce Bamber. Miss Harrington was in charge of ushers and Miss Vinal of candy. Mr. Wilcox took care of ticket sales, assisted by Dale Richards, as student chairman. Lights and sound effects were by Charles Valine. Prompters were Priscilla Merritt, Dale Richards, and Roxanna Turner. Make-up was by Mr. Leonard Arnold. The scenery was designed and constructed by Miss Shmauk and Mr. Burgess.

As usual, the Senior Play was a big success and our heartiest thanks go to all those who helped in any way to make this production possible.

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

Barbara Prouty, '52

THE STUDENT COUNCIL launched its work for the year at a meeting early in September. Edward Stewart was elected president; William Vines, vice president; Barbara Prouty, secretary; and Norman Walker, treasurer. Representatives to the council include Jack Kettell, Peter Nord, Barbara Prouty, Edward Stewart, Sally Lee, Priscilla Merritt, Richard Clapp. Seniors: Aram Brazilian, Lois Newcomb, Neil Towle, William Vines, Juniors: Clemens Fortman, Gladys Clapp, Phyllis Cahoon, Sophomores: Letitia Bernard, Norman Walker, Freshmen: Deborah Brigham, Grade 8, and Elizabeth Gunn, Grade 7. Our advisers are Miss Harrington and Mr. Froberger.

Several committees were appointed to help carry out the many duties of the Student Council. The Rally Committee, Priscilla Merritt, chairman, planned the pep rallies held during the football season. The Ways and Means Committee, Priscilla Merritt, chairman, discussed and supervised ways of raising money. The Attendance Committee, Barbara Prouty, chairman, checked excuses of absent members. The Locker Room Committee, Elizabeth Grassie and Peter Nord, co-chairmen, arranged the inspection of locker rooms each period.

The Student Council worked with the Scituate

Parent-Teacher Association in organizing and sponsoring the Saturday night record hops for students. On several evenings prominent disc jockeys attended, and the dances were very successful.

In the fall football pins were sold in the Junior High. Priscilla Merritt did a commendable job selling refreshments at the football games.

Four delegates and five representatives attended the fall convention of the Southeastern Branch of Student Councils held in Middleboro.

The Council drew up an amendment to the Student Association Constitution concerning the presentation of athletic awards. It was voted that a chenille letter be given in each sport the first year earned. Each following award will be a chenille bar.

The Student Council also investigated the point system in view of possibly establishing it in our school. The purpose of the point system is to distribute offices and honors fairly among students so that one person will not hold too many offices.

The Student Council is always open to suggestions from the student body and extends an invitation to interested members to visit our meetings.

PRO MERITO

J. Bamber, '52

"All hail! all hail! to Pro Merito,
The standards set to make ambitions grow."

THE true meaning of our organization is found in the opening lines of the Pro Merito song. This club is open to all seniors who maintain an 85 average through their four years of high school.

The officers chosen for this year were Richard Clapp, Imperator; Jack Kettell, Ductor; Marilyn Dyer, Scriba; and Judy Bernard, Praefectus Aerarii. Our advisers are Miss Harrington and Miss Bedell.

After attending a convention at Rockland,

October 17, we were better acquainted with the purpose and organization of this club.

In coordination with the Key Club a record hop was held at S.H.S. in November. This was a successful dance. The mid-year induction was held in February, at which time George Baker and Michael Corrigan were received as new members. All who attended enjoyed the inspiring services and the special entertainment afterwards.

Another induction was held the last of May to welcome the eligible juniors to this organization.

Thomas Whittaker, '54

AT THE FINAL meeting of the Key Club last year, officers were elected for the 1951-52 year as follows: Jack Kettell, president; Michael Corrigan, vice president; Russell Prouty, secretary; Fidelio Rodrick, treasurer; Edward Stewart, Jr., Lieutenant Governor.

All members of the Key Club attended a meeting and dinner of their sponsors, the Scituate Kiwanis Club.

This year the Key Club has been active in school affairs. It combined with Pro Merito to sponsor a record hop. Key Club members helped during the basketball season by selling tickets at all the home games. During Blue and White Week the Key Club sponsored a photo contest. Also during the week the Key Club presented the Good Sports Award to Robert Dwyer and Judith Bernard.

Mr. Stewart has ably advised the Key Club in all its activities this year.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

Thomas Whittaker, '54

THIS year, under the direction of Mr. Dickinson, the band and orchestra have shown much improvement. There are many new members, and better performance has been shown.

At the football games the band was really outstanding under the leadership of the drum majorettes. The band played at all home games and one away.

The band has performed at several other events this year. They attended a B.U. football game and played in the massed bands. They played at the annual concert March 28. On May 14 the band attended the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival at Middleboro, Mass. They also played on Memorial Day.

This year Barbara Prouty and John Staffeld attended the Massachusetts All-State Convention at Framingham.

The orchestra also has improved. It has played at the spring concert and many assemblies.

This year the band and orchestra will lose through graduation one trumpet player, one tuba player, one violinist, and one clarinetist.

Judith Taylor, '53

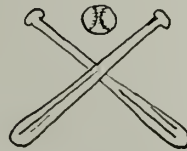

THE GLEE CLUB for 1952 has 110 members.

This group is divided into three sections: Senior-Junior Girls, Freshmen-Sophomore girls, and the boys.

The Glee Club has participated in many interesting activities this year. The boys sang some selections at the Armistice Day Assembly. At the Christmas assembly, which was put on by the Music Department, the senior girls participated by singing Christmas carols. In March the Junior and Senior girls and the boys sang at the Spring Concert put on by the music department. A group of Freshmen and Sophomore girls attended the opera with Miss Reynolds.

FOOTBALL

Jack Kettell, '52

THE 1951 FOOTBALL TEAM followed up Scituate's sensational year in baseball by annexing the South Shore League football crown. Defeating all three South Shore opponents. Scituate won six games and lost only two for a winning percentage of .750. Scituate lost only to Bourne and Rockland.

The team hit its offensive high when it flattened Randolph High 44-0. Everybody scored that day. Scituate showed tremendous power against West Bridgewater (33 points), Marshfield (39 points), and Cohasset (also 39 points). The team played its best defensive game against Hanover, holding them scoreless. Another great team victory was against Weston. After being pushed all over the field in the first half, Scituate came back to score three times to Weston's once, as they defeated Weston 19-7.

Many of the team would like to play again the Rockland and Bourne games. They lost a heartbreaker on a dusty field to Bourne — 13-12, and were defeated by Rockland in her beautiful new stadium — 25-7. The football season is never a success without a victory over Cohasset. This year Scituate clobbered Cohasset's team 39-7 to end a terrific season.

The team scored 199 points to its opponents' 80. That is an average of 24.9 points per game. Nine of this year's starting eleven are seniors, five of whom made the South Shore League All-Star Team. Although Coach Johnson will miss these graduating seniors, he has a lot of talent in the under classmen. Those graduating are Don Shea, John Jacobucci, Hank Cusick, Jack Breen, Ed Stewart, Jack Kettell, Pete Nord, Ralph Cole, Paul Ford, Joe O'Donnell, David Evans, David Stone, and Mike Corrigan.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Jack Kettell, '52

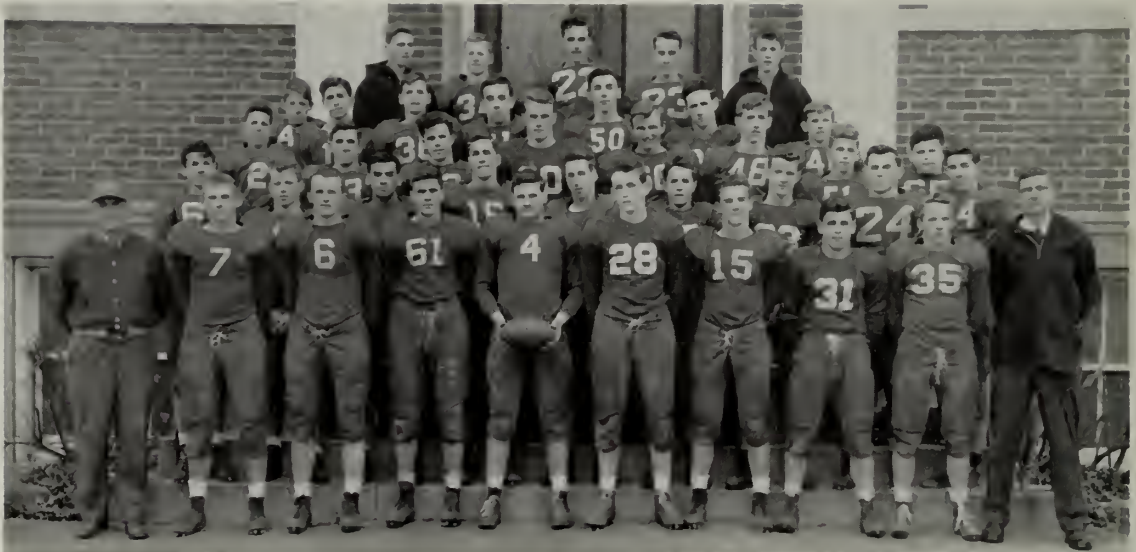

SCITUATE HIGH SCHOOL is truly the Massachusetts "Cinderella" team of the year. Scituate has grown to a position where it dominates South Shore football and baseball, but it usually doesn't make a too-good showing in basketball. This year was the feast that followed the famine, however. Scituate, starting on opening day, swept through its schedule, including five tournament games, to win the most games any Scituate team has ever won. We wound up with a record of fifteen and four — fifteen games won, four lost.

What made this year's team so good is easy to see. — teamwork. Unlike teams of the past there were no "stars" on this year's team. Everybody was a sharpshooter from all angles of the court. In past years one or two men carried the scoring load. This year, however, the scoring was spread evenly over the first five, — Charlie Goddard, Paul Green, Eddie Stewart, Ralph Cole and Donnie Roy.

The season, strangely enough, began on New Year's day when Scituate clobbered Kingston 63-36. Read the score backwards and you get the same thing. The team was elated, and the jokes were many about equaling our last season's record already. After Scituate met Norwell and came out with a 67-44 victory, the team took things differently, however. After all, Norwell

LAST YEAR'S TEAM won the South Shore League title by rolling up an 8-0 record. They went on to win the Southeastern Massachusetts Championship, and entered the finals at Fenway Park. This game was their only loss of the season, the final record being 11-1. A banquet was given at the end of the season to honor the team.

Some returning from last year's squad are Bob Dwyer, pitcher; Dick Loughman, Paul Ford, Ed Stewart, and Don Roy, infielders; Jack Breen and Dick Wiley, outfielders.

Position are wide open, however, and there probably will be several new boys when Scituate High takes the field for its first game, April 29.

FIELD HOCKEY

Shirley Pettersen, '52

THEY DID IT AGAIN! Scituate's field hockey team once more holds the title of South Shore Champions. Both the teams showed excellent sportsmanship and much enthusiasm in playing the games. The coach, Mrs. Mary Bauer, deserves much credit for her day-by-day coaching. Also much credit goes to Ann Dacey, who acted as manager for both the first and second teams.

All the games were exciting. The Marshfield and Hanover games were tied one to one after a hard fight to hold the score. Probably one of the most exciting games was the one played at Pembroke on a rainy, muddy day. In spite of a slippery field, the pep and vigor of the players brought the team through with a three-to-nothing victory.

Nine games were played during the season, with twenty-one goals made in all. In five of the games the opponents did not score.

The high scorer of the season was Joan Perry with 13 goals; next came Nancy Taggart and Yvonne Mongeau with 3 each; and then Rosemary Manning and Gail Brazilian with one each.

The Junior varsity deserve much credit for their faithful attendance at practice and for the competition they gave. This year they had mostly new material, but next year they should be tops.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Rosemary Manning, '52

THE GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM for the 1952 season were not so fortunate as the boys in winning games, but they played well and kept the crowds wondering what the final scores would be.

The Varsity players were Shirley Pettersen, Helen Ann Murphy, Marilyn Dyer, Joan Perry, Rosemary Manning, and Nancy Taggart. Substitutes were Yvonne Mongeau, Faith Simpson, Mary Ryan, Carolyn Bamber, and Mary Sue Curran.

The high scorer of the season was Rosemary Manning. Close behind were Nancy Taggart, Yvonne Mongeau, Faith Simpson, and Joan Perry.

The Junior Varsity also did a splendid job this season and deserve much credit. They were faithful in attending practice and giving the first team a good work-out. The members of the Junior Varsity were Maureen Stark, Mary Ryan, Gail Purslow, Frances Sweeney, Ruth Mitchell, Jebby Burnham, Carolyn Macy, Martha Laidlaw, Diane Prouty, Teresa Dowd, and Lois Newcomb.

The most exciting game of the season was played on New Year's Day against Kingston. The score was tied practically through the whole game, but in the last half the Scituate girls were defeated. The final score was 41-44.

Much credit goes to Mrs. Mary Bauer, who taught the team sportsmanship and spirit, as well as basketball. The team also gives credit to Ann Dacey, manager, and Priscilla Merritt and Dale Richards, assistant managers.

TENNIS

Shirley Pettersen, '52

THE MATCHES played by the 1951 tennis team. Two with Hingham and two with Braintree, were all very close. Though the 1952 team will miss Fannie Whorf, Mary Jane Stewart, Mary Lou Brow, and Louise Castles, there are promising new players coming up to take their places.

The girls who played singles were Fannie Whorf, Janice Leighton, and Elizabeth Grassie.

Playing doubles were Mary Jane Stewart and Mary Lou Brow, and Evelyn Jenney and Joan Perry. Louise Castles played as substitute in the doubles. The manager for the season was Lois Merritt.

CHEERLEADERS

Barbara Hunter, '52

SOON AFTER school opened in September, tryouts for cheerleaders were held. The judges chose four juniors and two seniors as football cheerleaders: Ann Breen, Elizabeth Grassie, Sue Taggart, Joyce Bamber, and Barbara Hunter, captain. This year the field hockey games were added to the cheerleading schedule. All the girls were hard workers, and did not complain at the long practices which were necessary since five of the six girls were new.

To start the basketball season off, the cheerleaders made new blue jumpers. Maureen Glavin was added as a substitute. Besides cheering at the scheduled boys' and girls' games, we also supported the boys' team in the Brockton Tournament and the Tech Tourney in the Boston Gardens.

None of us will ever forget the excitement of those games at the Gardens when Scituate entered the finals in the Class "C" championship.

was supposed to have the best team in the loop. The team really started thinking about copping the crown.

Scituate slid easily by two more victims before losing to Marshfield. After winning another game against Hanover, we lost the one after that to Kingston by a 60-59 score when we couldn't freeze the ball ten seconds. The Kingston game was the last game we lost in the regular season's play. Scituate, having "pennant" fever, rode easily over its next four opponents.

The scene was set at Norwell for Scituate's first championship team in years. The two leading contenders for the crown beside Scituate were Norwell and Marshfield. Scituate was tied with Norwell for first place with two losses. Marshfield was in second place with three losses. A win at Norwell would give us the league lead.

The boys were up for this one. They had to be. In a comparatively small, well-packed gym at Norwell, Scituate eked out a 46-43 victory to gain the league lead. After that game the rest was anti-climatic. Our next two wins over Duxbury and Hanover nailed down the championship.

Champs! Who would have thought it!

Unknown to the team and its supporters, however, that was only the beginning. Invited to play in the Brockton tournament, Scituate hammered out a 63-32 victory over Cohasset before bowing in the semi-finals to Holbrook 60-44. The score is deceiving. The score at the end of the third period was 39-38. Thus you can see Scituate was in the game until the final period.

After losing by such a large score, we entertained little hopes of being invited to the fabulous Tech Tourney, a high school basketball extravaganza. To make matters worse, Norwell defeated Holbrook in the Brockton Tournament on the following night. Thus a team which we had beaten twice, had beaten a team which had clobbered Scituate.

Imagine Scituate's amazement therefore, when Coach Stewart informed us that we had a Tech Tourney invitation. From doormat to Tech Tourney in one year seemed too much to ask for.

Facing a heavily-favored Acton squad at Boston Gardens in the quarter finals, Scituate took the lead from the beginning and never relinquished it. The final score: Scituate 39, Acton 34.

If the team and their followers thought that that victory was astounding, they were ever more amazed and thrilled as Scituate stole a 56-50 verdict from Weston in the semi-finals. Scituate High School in the Eastern Massachusetts Championship finals seemed like too much to believe.

The team came to the end of a great trail, however, in the finals when a heavily-favored Provincetown team defeated us 54-39.

The following received basketball varsity letters:

George Baker	Charles Goddard
Ralph Cole	Jack Kettell
Don Roy	Pete Stewart
Ed Stewart	Doug Mendell
Paul Green	Bill Vines
Paul Ford	Tom Hennigan
Mike Veiga	Peter Anderson, Mgr.

As a final honor, Ed Stewart was named as Center on the Class C Tech Tourney All-Star Squad.

Here's the team's record:

Student: "What did you say?"

Teacher: "I don't know. I wasn't listening."

A young man away on a job wrote home and said, "Have been made foreman — a feather in my cap." Two months later he wrote again, "Have been made manager — another feather in my cap." At the end of the year he wrote, "Have been fired — send money." The reply came, "Use feathers — fly home."

Neighbor: "They tell me your son is on the school football team. Do you know what position he plays?"

Proud mother of S. H. S. football star: "I'm not sure, but I think he is one of the drawbacks."

Teacher: "This is the last time I shall ask you to stop talking."

Student: "Good! Now I can talk in peace."

Smith: "Now, there's a woman who makes the little things count."

Jones: "What does she do?"

Smith: "She teaches arithmetic in one of the grade schools."

An angry subscriber who was having trouble with the telephone bellowed at the operator, "Am I crazy, or are you?"

"I'm sorry, sir," said the Voice with a Smile, "we do not have that information."

"How do you tell an old chicken from a young one?"

"By the teeth, of course."

"Don't be silly. Hens don't have teeth."

"I know, but I have."

REPARTEE

It was during a big bargain sale and tempers were rising.

"If I were trying to match politeness," said the woman customer, glaring at the salesgirl, "I'd have a hard time finding it here."

"Will you kindly let me see your sample, madam?" the salesgirl replied.

NEVER AGAIN

Mother wanted to spend Saturday in town, and father, an accountant, reluctantly agreed to give up his golf and spend the afternoon with the children. On return of mother, the father handed her the following report of the afternoon.

"Dried tears — 9 times. Tied shoes — 13 times. Toy balloons purchased — 3 per child. Average life of a balloon — 13 seconds. Cautioned children not to cross street — 21 times. Children crossed street — 21 times. Number of Saturdays I will do this again — 0."

Gene McAfee (during a discussion in English class of classical music and jazz): "I am not a long-hair, but neither am I bald."

THOSE WERE THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Our star female athlete seemed quieter then.
That blonde hair and that grin!

Our pharmacist seems to like the water.

Our sweet little singer had a bit of a devil in her eye once.

Our rogue hasn't changed a bit.

Those bare toes have carried many a field-hockey team to victory.

I wonder if rag dolls have anything to do with math.

Visions of our class treasury in a pool?

Do you recognize one of our cheerleaders?
Sweet and demure even then.

Those blonde curls. What a false impression.

I guess she always wanted to be a nurse.

"Chippie" loved football even then.

This little fellow still likes to talk.

Does snow have any effect on her "hot"
Mercury?

From swimming to cheerleading is a big step.

She had nice clothes even then.

Her toothless grin has changed into a broad smile.

She liked to sing even then.

This blonde hasn't lost her gay smile.

The faraway look still remains. Happy thoughts of a different nature!

We're glad her frown changed to a smile.

Do you recognize one of our potential secretaries?

Recognize one of this duo? We admit the change has been great.

His smile and hair remains the same. The neck-tie should be a clue also.

Our blonde Missourian has lost some weight;
wouldn't you say?

Her time is busily taken up now, but not with dogs and dolls!

Her now-pretty smile came with the addition of two front teeth.
